2019 (THE BEFORE-TIME):

Have you seen this?

What is that?

It's a crowd-fund toy project of Unicron, the planet robot from the 1986 movie. If enough people pre-order it, it'll be produced.

How big is that thing supposed to be?

Larger than Danielle.

HasLab

So, are you going to order it?

Are you kidding!?

Sure, it looks pretty amazing, but it's close to six hundred dollars! How am I supposed to scrape that together before the end of August?

I have a family! I can't go raiding our savings to buy some monster toy that's too big to do anything with!

We don't even have room for the stuff we own now!

No, it's just irresponsible. I don't need something this stupid.

Can't do it.

You're going to try to find a way, aren't you?

HRRRNNG!!

THE CLOSER-TO-NOW TIME:
Bzzzzz
Hey Sabrina. What's up?
Huh? Where are you?
Well why don't you walk in the door?
Just come out here and help me!
What the heck are you doing?
I need some assistance bringing this inside.
It's a two-person job.
Why? What do you-
Oh, HOLY... crap!
Just grab that end and pull.
I thought you decided you weren't getting one of these things.
I did!
I just... Forgot to tell you that I changed my mind before the pre-orders closed.

I can't believe the delivery driver just left this on the front step! It's supposed to be signed for!
It's the times we live in now.
So you changed your mind, huh?
Yeah, I'm sorry for not telling you before now. I mostly used money I've had saved up from-
Oh, I'm not angry or anything. I'm just trying to understand your process.
You said this was irresponsible before.
Well, it is,
but the way I saw it, this was also a very rare opportunity that might never come again.
-Not without paying a whole lot more, anyway.
I also figured if I should ever need to get rid of it, I'd probably be able to sell it for a big profit.
I think that's some pretty solid rationalization for buying a stupidly expensive toy.
Thank you.
There's only one other thing you need to concern yourself with right now.
What's that?
How we're going to get you back out of this room.
OH!

Let me go through these smaller toys first, and then we'll tackle the big box.
You bought even more toys?
I was shopping earlier!
Whoa, look at all the new toys the mistress brought in!
Yeah, I wonder if anyone's getting replaced.
Replaced?
Maybe you don't need to worry about it, but some of us live in constant fear of being booted into storage when a new toy shows up.
Me Grimlock know what him talking about!
Years ago, me Grimlock come new From store. Took over For puny smaller Grimlock toy.
'Sup.
Him Grimlock went away after that. Not know where to.
Well, it could just be a matter of time before some shiny new toy takes your place.
No, you no get it. Me Grimlock did the replacing! Me not get-Everyone SHHH!! She's headed this way!
'Sup.
oop.

Hoo boy, it's gonna take a lot of work just getting this out of the box!
I agree. Maybe we should take a break and come up with a game plan before tackling this job.
Sounds good. It's getting close to dinner time anyway.
>oof.<
What do you think we should Fix?
I think I'm more in the mood to order in a pizza.
I could get behind that.
click
What hell, man! Who you think you are, moving in on my shelf?
Me Grimlock.
ME Grimlock!
No, ME Grimlock.
You're BOTH toys based on the same character, just different types and styles.
It's gonna be up to Sabrina if anyone stays or goes.
Him right. Mistress Sabrina decide who get spot on shelf.
Yeah, me. 'Cause me Grimlock.
ME GRIMLOCK!!

>Sigh< Are we all destined to be eventually replaced, and then our replacements replaced as well?
It's hard to say. It's different for everyone.
Me Grimlock!
Me Grimlock!
ME!
You're lucky. You're an obscure character from a short-lived line. It's very unlikely a new toy of you will ever be made.
I don't know if I should be relieved or insulted by that.
Some characters get new toys all the time, while others hardly ever do, and sometimes the mistress decides a new toy isn't worthy to take the place of one of us already here,
-and sometimes the mistress displays several toys of the same character, like on the Optimus shelf over there.
So, you think you'll be replaced?
Oh, I already have been.
Huh?
Yeah, there's a bigger, badder Soundwave toy over on that shelf.
Hey bud!
YO!
Then how are you sticking around?
Well y'see, I'm kind of unique, as I turn into a real working MP3 music player.
Wow, really?
Or - I was a working player, but the cheap electronics stopped working after the batteries were changed.
Oh. - That's kinda pathetic.
miniSD
You think that's bad? This is a mini-SD card. Not micro - mini!

Where'd you get this?
A place I hadn't tried before. They say it's 'Dayton style' pizza.
What does that even mean?
I dunno - that it looks like a carpet?
PIAZZA
I've been thinking. Danielle's getting older, so maybe we should move her bed out of our room, and set her up with her own room.
Uhm, we don't really have a free room at the moment.
Well, between both of our toys, computers, collectibles, and game consoles, we're taking up two rooms with just our stuff.
I thought we could merge them, thus freeing up a room for Danielle.
PIAZZA
You'll need to rearrange things to make room for your new stuff anyway, so this seems like the right time.
I don't think we can cram all of our things into a single room!
I'm sure we can figure something out, but yeah, we won't be able to fit everything.
We'll need to decide what to hold on to, and what to put away, or get rid of.
URRGH! - Can't we just get a larger apartment instead?
Even if we did, we'd still need to move everything.

hmmm...
Do you think we'll be able to fit all the toys and computers in this one room?
Well, not ALL of them, not if we want ourselves to fit in the room too.
At least this room's a little bigger than the other one. We can put the shelf units along the walls there, and there,
and there, and there,
and there.
Don't forget to leave room for my computers and things.
We can keep the computer desks in the corners, but we'll need to make room for my Amigas, and game systems.
Do you really need this many PCs?
Welll... I don't use the old work rig much anymore, so I guess we could take that out, but we can't have your old dinosaur systems hogging all the space either.
You know, pretty much all your game consoles could be emulated at full speed on my PC.
The Amigas too.
Mmm... no, It wouldn't have the same feel.
You wouldn't need any of those bulky CRT screens either.
Hmmmm...
In fact, taking emulation into account, the only indispensible computer here is my Windows PC, and we could toss out all the other-
Uhf.
I'm gonna pretend I didn't hear that.

I'd better take all this out of the box. It should take up less room that way.

Okay, the stand is put together. We can attach the planet to it now.
It should be easier to work with this way.
All right, how is this supposed to fit on the...
Oh I see, this little door opens up.
WAIT! What are you doing?
I was going to put it on the stand.
You can't do it that way!
Why not?
You need to partially disassemble the shell, and flip this part inside so it isn't sticking out.
You risk breaking something otherwise.
I didn't see that in the instructions.
Yeah, they're not super clear.
I read about it in online reviews.
You needed to look online for info that should've been included?
I was waiting over a year for this pre-order. There was plenty of time to let others make the mistakes for me.

Okay, these pincers are turned forward,
These strips with the spikes fit over these posts,
and then the rings... wait.
I think I have the wrong ones on the wrong sides.
How can you tell?
It's not fitting together right!
Okay, now plug these in - ERRMPH!
-and snap it all back together...
ungh!
And there we are!
Whew!
Impressive.
Are you gonna turn it into a robot now?
Ugh - I'm pretty worn out now. Maybe tomorrow.

All you toys - can I have your attention please!
Huh?
What's going on?
Based on information from reliable sources, we have learned that all toys will be moved to a new location, and...
I'm afraid there's going to be a... culling.
A culling? Oh NO!
What's that?
The shelves will be re-arranged, and some of you may lose your space.
We don't know who just yet.
You may be moved OFF the shelves, put into storage, or - and this is highly unlikely - sold off or even thrown away.
WHAT!? WHO!!?
I just said we don't know, but if you're a duplicate, or take up a lot of space, you should be on guard.
Old Unicron From the Armada line, I'm sorry to say you're pretty much screwed.
Wha- ME!? Why me?
I've been a Fixture in this collection since the early 2000s!
This entire thing was kicked off by the mistress bringing in a very large, very expensive new toy of you. What did you expect!?

Today's meeting of the girl toys club is called to order.
Our scheduled discussion on back pain from dealing with excessive vehicle or animal mode parts will be postponed in light of the new developments.
So, what do we think about all this business with our shelf space getting scaled back?
I really don't like it, but there's not much I can do about it.
I'm sure it'll all work out fine.
You always say that.
I'm usually right.
Well, I heard some of us might get moved into the main bedroom.
Sharing a room with Mistress Sabrina and her husband? Who gets that honor?
No idea.
I've been told it's not all it's cracked up to be. A few toys have witnessed them at night - changing clothes, sleeping, performing their bonding rituals together,
!
'Bonding rituals'? Sounds weird!
Believe me, it is!
Oh please, it couldn't possibly be any stranger than the things Master RC's toys and figures saw him doing when he was alone!
Really? What kind of stuff did he do?
I'd go into detail, but I wouldn't want to further traumatize poor Cheetara.
He just... STARED directly at me the entire time!

Okay! Now to finally transform this thing!
CRACK!
First, I'll need to remove these ring sections.
You have to take it apart?
I think I could do this without taking 'em out, but I'd probably get swatted whenever I tried to move something around.
RING!
Okay, these sections come loose, and-
RC, could you get the phone?
On it.
Sabrina! It's Zig Zag calling.
She wants to talk to you about some work project.
Really? I'll be right there!

Zig Zag! What's up?
Oh, we're trying that out already? How soon did you want to get going on that?
When?
Look, Zig, I really don't have any experience with that kinda stuff.
I mean, if you give me a week or so to do some research and figure things out, I could...
I understand you're impatient about this. You're always impatient, but...
Hold on a sec,
I think maybe I can get someone who can help out on this project if you don't mind paying a little extra.
Yeah? Okay!
CLIK!
RC dear, have you ever considered taking on some freelance consultant work?
Do the what now?

You know something about virtual livestreamers, don't you?
I follow a number of them, yes.
I still miss Coco.
Do you know much about the setups and software they use?
I know a little about it.
I was hoping it was more than just a little.
Well, I can't say I know everything, as there's been a lot of new developments over the last couple years, in facial tracking, live-2D rigs, and-
Okay, that's the software geek answer I was looking for.
Zig Zag is starting an adult VTuber project at the studio. I'm helping, but it's not my area of expertise.
I didn't even know there were adults-only VTubers.
Oh, they're definitely out there.
One has purple hair.
So anyway, I could use some help from someone who knows more about the equipment and software involved, as well as the culture, so we can get a good start.
Hmmmm, I see.
So you're saying there's something you can't handle alone, using your precious Amiga systems?
Oh, we're back on THIS again, are we?

I'm getting mighty tired of your constant pot-shots at my Amigas, just 'cause they aren't the latest and greatest!
C'mon hon, can't you take a little Friendly ribbing?
It doesn't Feel so Friendly to me! It'd be like if I teased you about that Honda you like to drive!
Wait, what about my car?
It's ancient! You've had it For at least Fifteen years, and you got it used!
But it still runs well! That's rare For a car that age!
But if you traded up, you could get a car with modern Features, like a music player, anti-lock brakes, working windows.
But it runs Fine!
It has a couple hundred thousand miles on it.
But it runs!
But it's old.
But it runs!
But it's old.
...
But it RUNS!
That still doesn't change the Fact that it's old.
Look, it may not be the newest model, but it works For me, and does what I need it to do.
So, do you see the point I'm trying to make here?
I certainly do! You want me to get rid of my CAR!

www.patreon.com/SabrinaOnline
©2022 Eric W. Schwartz - All Rights Reserved - Page 18

I suppose your Honda is something special to you, more personal than just basic transportation.
Exactly! Now you get it!
My Amigas are the same for me.
They're not good for everything, and they're not as powerful as newer systems, but I still enjoy working with them where I can, more than some commodity PC.
It's not the same. You can't really compare your decades-old computers to my decades-old car.
Look, if you stop teasing me about the Amigas, I won't talk smack about your noisy carbon monoxide cracker-box.
Otherwise, it's gonna be war.
But...
Okay.
Besides, we have a job to do.
Oh, that's right. So when does this job start?
As soon as we can get there.
What? You mean today?
Yeahh - when Zig gets motivated, she expects everyone to drop everything.
I'm not concerned about us so much, but what about Danielle?
Right. We'll need to find someone to watch her.
I guess the only other option is bringing her to the studio with us.
Hell no.
She doesn't need exposure to any more bad influences.
Not now, that she keeps figuring out how to turn the safe search off.

Hey Amy, uh...
I know this is short notice, but do you think you could watch Danielle for a few hours?
Sorry Sabrina, I'm not available. Thomas and I aren't even home right now. We had a thing.
Oh, did you take Timmy with you?
Well, who did you get to watch him?
REALLY!?
I don't know if I'm that desperate!
Then again...
Hello! Tabitha's baby-sitting service is at your ... ... service.
YES, it's a real thing!
YOU would babysit Danielle?
Yeah! Bring her over! I can do it no problem!
You're not really even old enough to be on your own! Why should I trust you with my child!?
I'm very mature for my age.
No you AREN'T!
If it makes you feel any better, she has adult supervision.

Are you about ready to go?
As I'll probably ever be.
What are you doing?
I'm gathering up some stuff I was planning to drop off at my parents' house.
Might as well save a trip if we're going there anyway.
I thought you liked that machine!
I do, but so does Dad, and he might get more use out of it now,
-and like you told me, there's always emulation.
Your Dad likes Transformers too?
No, but Timmy is going to be there, and better to give this toy a good home than just toss it in storage.
I hate running off on such short notice like this.
Yeah, it always feels like you're leaving behind unfinished business.
Hey, why don't we take my car!
AH-
Fine, but no Dragon Maid soundtrack.
Cowboy Bebop it is!

Did you hear that? They're taking Grimlock to Timmy!
Me Grimlock!
No, the other Grimlock!
Oh. So what?
Look, you're new here, so you don't know, but Timmy was a terror who chewed toys to bits!
I dunno. He was okay to me.
You were lucky! Try saying that to the toys who have missing limbs and teeth marks!
But that was years ago! Timmy might be different now. I don't think the mistress would give him a toy if she thought he'd destroy it!
Maybe you're right, but I don't wanna take the chance! I think we should go rescue Grimlock.
You're kidding, right? How are we supposed to do that?
Shouldn't be that tough - we just look up the address, and go there while staying out of sight.
Me Grimlock no care about puny other Grimlock. Count Me Grimlock out.
I wasn't even asking you, jerk!
Okay, I'll help you, even though I think this is a mistake, but you should realize we're getting dangerously close to a Pixar movie here.
Well they don't OWN the idea!
Do they?

Hi Dad.
Sabrina,
Where's Mom?
Shopping.
Ah.
You gonna give me the kid or what?
Hold on Tabitha, I have a couple things to take care of First. Not a fan of the new 'do, by the way.
Dad, I have something For you.
You do?
RC and I are rearranging the apartment, and we don't really have room For the old Atari anymore, so I'm giving it back to you.
Oh! Looks like I'll be wasting a lot of time later.
Hi there Timmy! Long time no see!
Hi Sabrina.
I can't believe you still have the toy I gave you so long ago! Well, I have something new For you!
Huh?
Look! This new Grimlock toy is bigger than the one you have now, and it lights up!
It's yours if you want it!
Oooooh!
No thank you.
hm.
So, what do you have For me?
You get the opportunity to look after my only child, AND be paid For the privilege!

I have the address for Sabrina's parents' house. It's only a couple miles from here.
Okay. Now what?
We'll have to mount some kind of rescue mission, but I'm not sure how to do that.
Hmm... I think I know a guy.
Razorclaw!
Yo, WAVE! Wassup!?
We have a job that might be up your alley.
Oh yeah?
Grimlock was taken away, and we're trying to put together a rescue operation.
Aw, SWEET! I always wanted to try my hand at a commando raid!
So First, I'm gonna need Firearms of various calibers, all the explosives you can lay your hands on, and-
Whoa whoa WHOA! It's not that kind of thing! This is only a rescue!
We're supposed to stay out of sight and not draw attention to ourselves!
Dude, my whole chest is a lion face! Subtlety is not my deal!

Sabrina! Babe! You finally made it!
You wouldn't leave me alone until I did!
Heh, true.
You already know my husband. He'll be our VTuber tech consultant for today.
Hey.
Hi RC. How's the sex life? Still good, or did the baby slow things down?
uhh...
You don't have to answer that.
This way to the streaming studio, you two.
What's up with all the boxes?
Oh yeah! We just got in samples for our new merch!
Remember when all the talent had molds made of their body parts a few months back?
Oh Jeez! I do now!
This one is Sheila.
So what's in-
Damn, that's like - ARM size!
Well, we're not here to rate your collection of silicone - *
That BETTER not be what I think it is!
Oh, it definitely is.
I had to commission a sculptor for that one. You wouldn't sit still for a mold.
Don't worry. This isn't a product. It's just a one-off for me.
ZIG ZAG!
I was very respectful. This is based on you with your pants ON.
Your old pants, I mean.
It's... pretty close.

This should work for a start, but you're gonna need more if you plan to be serious about it.
What would we need for that?
You'll want a high-powered PC with a dual monitor setup ideally. This webcam is probably adequate, or you could use a smartphone with a good built-in camera.
Maybe a streamer deck with custom keys, capture card, a high-quality microphone, ... some soundproofing...
I'm sure we can use or adapt some of the studio equipment for video shoots.
Makes sense to me.
What platform are you using for online streaming, YouTube or something else?
We have our own service that we share with some other adult studios.
That's right! "JERK Streaming"!
Yeah... classy. It was mainly used for the live camgirl stuff.
But it has online chat, and accepts payments and things like that, right?
OF course!
I'll check it out. Might need to tweak a few things, but we can probably make it work.
Who's going to be your performer?
My what?
Who will be in front of the camera for the on-screen avatar to key OFF of?
So, you're saying this isn't all generated by the computer?
I'm not the expert here, but at least I knew that much.

The rescue mission starts NOW!
Right. Just tell us what to do.
You have the extraction location?
Check!
Okay, so First, bug boy there Flies us all to the site, and then we-
Um, excuse me a moment,
what?
I SAID - you Fly us there, and-
Look bud, I'm just a toy with a Flapping action. I can't actually Fly, and even if I could, there's no way I could carry all of you!
Really? Well, hell!
So what do you turn into? It better be something Fast!
I turn into a working music player - that doesn't work anymore.
I turn into a boat, and... I can't Float very well.
Well, this is just GREAT! The only one here that could come close to carrying us all is-
Aw, crap.
Grrr! This is NOT a Fun mission anymore!
Less complaining and more speed, Simba.

Hand me the video card, please.
Here.
So, what do you think of working here so far?
Well, it's nothing like my old office, that's for sure!
Hey, eyes on your job, family man!
Sorry, kind of hard to ignore.
You get used to it after some time.
It's not just that. It's all the flirting, and the casual lewdness.
I mean, if anyone at my old job said even a fraction of what Zig Zag has said today, they'd be making non-stop trips to H.R..
Yeah, well, an adult media studio is kind of a different environment.
Most everyone is extremely close here, 'cause they've been >ahem< together, either on camera, or on their own time.
Sorry you're getting caught up in it. Zig likes to push my buttons, but I made sure she knows there are boundaries not to cross.
So how did you manage that?
I punched her out in a hotel room.
Oh yeah! I remember now.

Who wants some dinosaur-shaped chicken nuggets?
That's something kids like, right?
Tabitha, I have food for everyone. How goes the babysitting?
It's going good, Dad.
It's like the easiest job I ever had.
Look, they're just playing on their own. I hardly have to do anything at all!
They're not even playing together?
I don't think Sabrina would be too happy to know you're just letting her daughter sit and mess around with her phone.
Well, what do you expect me to do?
You're looking after these children. It's your responsibility to provide activities for them and make sure they aren't bored or unhappy.
No Dad, that's not it.
My JOB is to SIT and watch the BABIES. The whole description is in the title!
You want some?

Hey there!
Hellooooo!
They're gone. You can show yourself.
It's safe now! You can-
What are you doing?
I'm telling the new toy that he can show himself.
You sure that's wise?
What do you mean?
Well, look! That toy's HUGE! What if it goes on a rampage? That kinda thing's happened before, y'know!
Yeah, like - ONCE.
Besides, if this big guy goes nuts, whether I talked to him or not isn't gonna make a difference.
Okay, so why isn't he doing anything?
I dunno. Maybe he's too big to move under his own power.
Are his parts locked?
Maybe he's not able to speak.
Perhaps he's in some kind of hibernation.
Maybe it's not alive.
... WHAT!?
That's a HORRIBLE thing to say!
What!? Like everything has to be alive? The cars? The toaster? Food!?

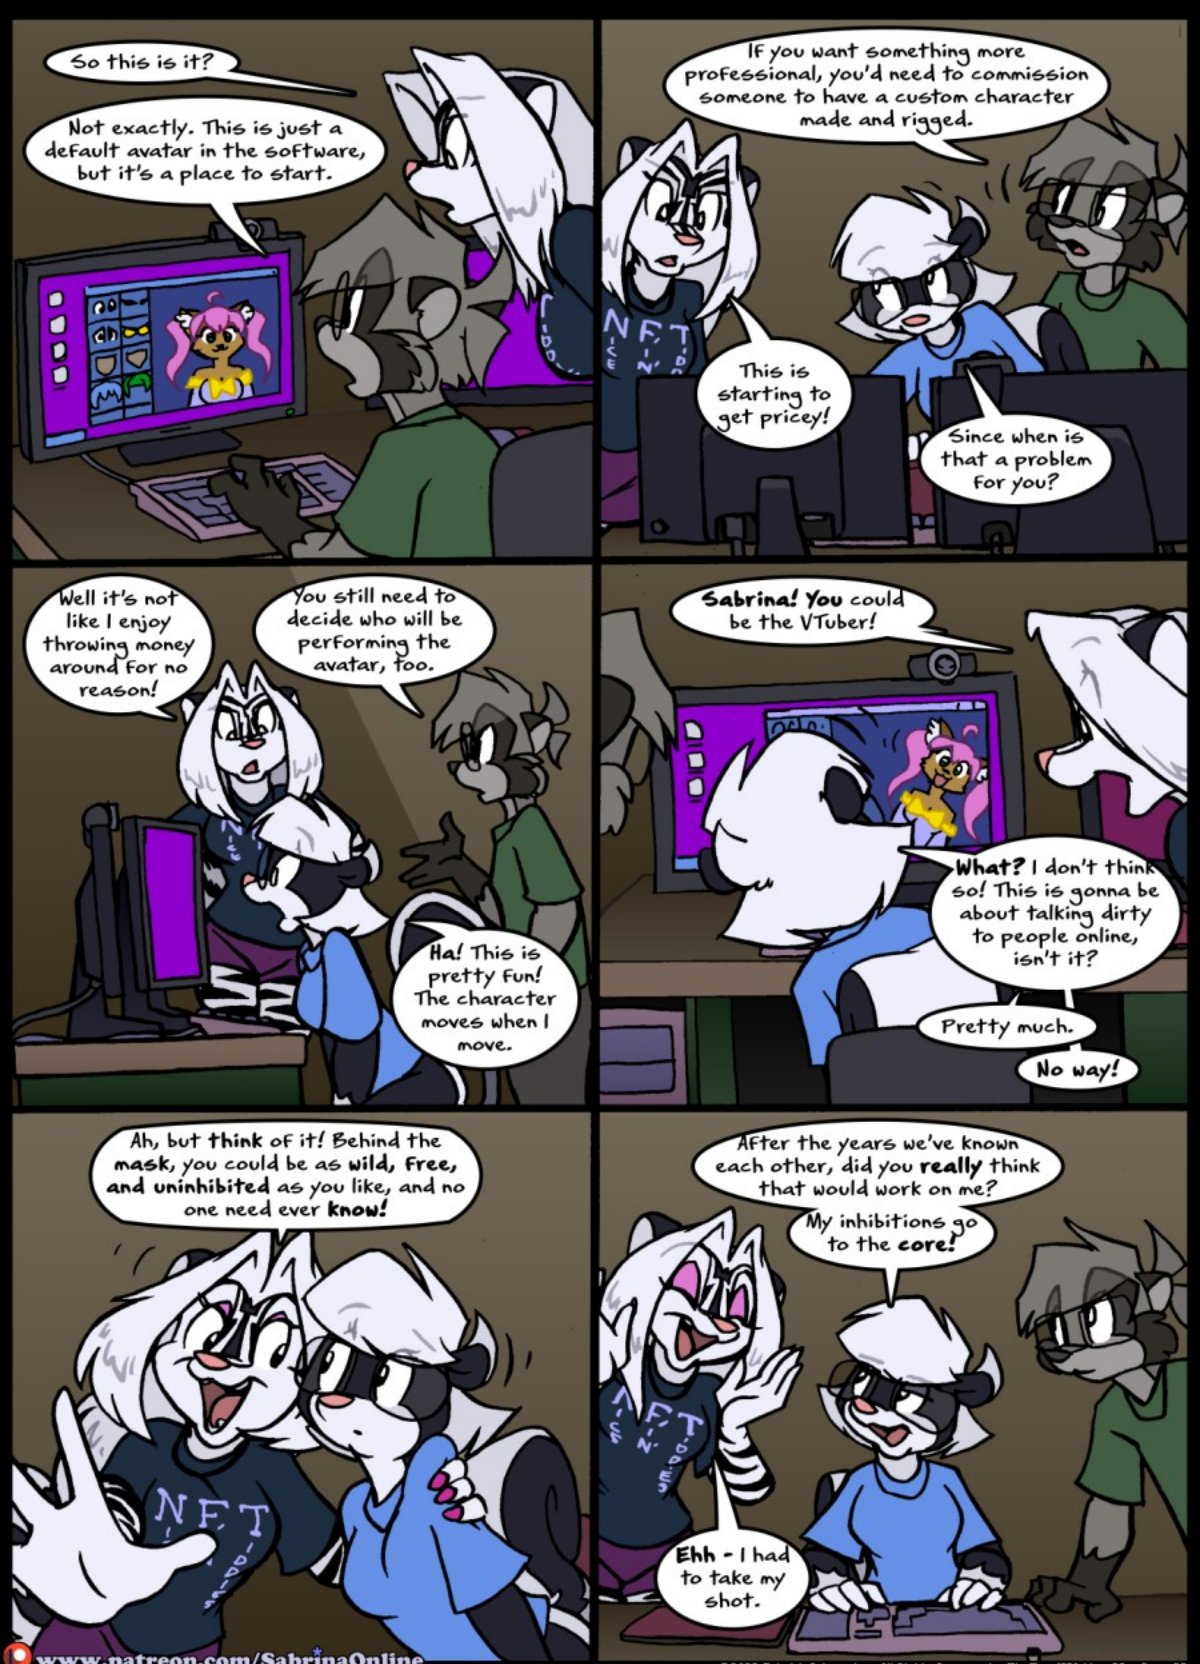
All right, I think we're about ready to start some testing.
Okay.
Y'know, I'm surprised. I haven't seen any Amiga computers around here. Where are you hiding them?
Did you think since I'm in charge of tech here, that we'd be using nothing but Amigas?
Well - kinda, yeah. You're that kind of stubborn sometimes.
It would be fun to try, but it's not really practical at this job.
Around here we use a handful of Mac and Linux systems, and a lot of ... Windows.
I see.
It's what the work demands.
Sure, if this was the 'nineties, and this studio still did a lot of analog video editing, I'd be pushing for Amigas with Video Toaster cards, but it's all about digital distribution and internet streaming ... and VTubers now. Sometimes you gotta go where the software support is.
So you're telling me the whole time you're here at the studio, you don't work with any of your favorite computers?
Why do you think I'm so keen to use them after I get home?

www.patreon.com/SabrinaOnline
©2022 Eric W. Schwartz - All Rights Reserved - Page 31



So this is it?
Not exactly. This is just a default avatar in the software, but it's a place to start.
If you want something more professional, you'd need to commission someone to have a custom character made and rigged.
This is starting to get pricey!
Since when is that a problem for you?
Well it's not like I enjoy throwing money around for no reason!
You still need to decide who will be performing the avatar, too.
Ha! This is pretty fun! The character moves when I move.
Sabrina! You could be the VTuber!
What? I don't think so! This is gonna be about talking dirty to people online, isn't it?
Pretty much.
No way!
Ah, but think of it! Behind the mask, you could be as wild, free, and uninhibited as you like, and no one need ever know!
After the years we've known each other, did you really think that would work on me?
My inhibitions go to the core!
Ehh - I had to take my shot.

Hey Tina! You got a minute?
What's up, Zig?
Remember how you were telling me that you missed being in Front of the camera, and wanted to connect with horny fans again?
No,
-but what do you have planned?
I present to you our new VTuber, Tina Lynx!
Temporarily, until you find someone to do this full-time.
So, what am I supposed to do here?
You sit in Front of the camera, and the character on-screen will match your movements and expressions.
What the?
Is it supposed to look like that?
No. There must be some kind of error with the facial tracking.
Hmm ... I think I might know what's wrong.
What?

Is this better?
Yeah, some, but the tracker is still having problems. Could you lose the dark glasses?
My glasses?
Uh, sure. Could someone dim the lights?
I'm on it.
Tina has issues with light sensitivity.
Oh, sorry! I didn't know.
It's no big deal. Just part of who I am.
I'll need to tinker with the settings to adjust for lower light, but it seems to be working now.
How does this work, exactly?
Think of it like a puppet you control by moving your body and face.
Heh, kinda fun.
So, what does a virtual streamer... do?
Pretty much whatever any other internet streamer does - talk with the online chat, sing, play games - it's all about forming a kind of relationship with your audience.
Would I be getting all flirty 'n' dirty with 'em?
Well, um - right now the model's not really set up to-
Oh, HELL yeah!
That's the entire point of this project!

Me Grimlock remember you! You old toy who left, given to Timmy when Me Grimlock come in to relplace you!
Yes, that is me,
Grimlock.
Same thing happen to Me Grimlock! New bigger Grimlock toy arrive, and suddenly Me Grimlock out on butt!
Hmm... Me Grimlock see.
Mistress Sabrina try giving to Timmy, but even Timmy no want Me Grimlock!
Timmy are very sentimental child. Not easily swayed by the new and shiny.
Me Grimlock feel like Failure! How you Grimlock deal with it?
You Grimlock kind of dick.
Look, Me Grimlock had many good years with Mistress Sabrina. At peak Me Grimlock was president of toy shelves!
Me Grimlock not trade that time for anything, but happy now with Timmy. Me Grimlock knows even this won't last forever. Life am unpredictable - transitory. We need learn to embrace change.
After all, we Transformers.
Wow, that pretty deep! You Grimlock am very philosophical.
It not easy when Grimlock command of grammar are Fked.

That collar with the bell on it is cute. Can you make the boobs a bit bigger?
Like I said, this is just a temporary model that can serve as a guide to have an official one commissioned.
Oh look, they jiggle! I like that!
Umm, you're kinda pressing your chest into my back.
Oops, sorry. You really are married, aren't you?
He sounds uncomfortable, but I can tell he's really having fun working on this project.
y'know, you two were made for each other.
You think so?
You're practically two of a kind!
You might not think so if you'd seen us during one of our arguments.
Let me guess. You argue about toys or computers or some other stuff like that.
How did you know?
The specific details might differ, but you both care a lot about the same dumb things - things someone like me has barely any interest in.
Well, I guess there is that.
I know your husband's gotta be doing something right!
After all, he's the only person I know to ever charm his way inside those pants of yours!
You just had to go there, didn't you?
I'd be more than happy to share you with him!
Stop.

Is this it?
For now at least, until you decide to have more custom work done.
I like it.
She's cute as hell, and she jiggles in all the right places.
Here's my card, if you have any questions, or need further tech support or consultation.
This is just your mobile number.
Yeah.
You did good work today, honey. C'mere.
Huh?
Thanks.
uhh... No problem. Well, it's about time I got going.
Yeah, we have a child we need to get back to.
Thanks for the assistance, you two!
You allright?
uhh... Yeah.
Did you enjoy your kiss?
I think I was too blind-sided to know either way.
By the way, you seem remarkably calm after what just happened.
Yeah, it's okay, RC. I trust you.
Maybe more importantly, I trust Tina.
Now if it was Zig Zag, on the other hand...

You did a lot of great work today. I'm happy you were able to help out.
Thanks, it was fun. I really enjoyed putting my skills and training to work one more time.
I do still wonder sometimes exactly why you quit your old job.
I thought I'd explained it.
You were already making more than enough to support the family, and I thought I'd be more help as a full-time parent than a part-time worker.
You did say that, but you were working from home by that time.
I know a baby is demanding, but was it really that tough to phone it in?
-literally?
Well, if I'm being honest, my job had lost some of its allure.
You know I was working the software support help desk.
Yeah?
After doing that for years, it got to be pretty... tedious.
I got so tired of giving the same stupid people the same stupid directions over and over... and over again.
You could've told me that! I would've understood.
I guess I thought I needed something more than saying I was sick of telling my millionth caller to reboot, or turn something OFF then on again.

I'm back!
Tabitha?
Where are the kids?
Other room.
Look out Danielle! The dragon is coming after you!
Watch out!
Hi Dad.
Welcome back Sabrina. Are you here to take this young lady home?
Afraid so.
Sabrina, you owe me Fifty dollars for babysitting.
Are you kidding!? It looks like Dad did most of your job here. I should be giving him the money!
C'mon! We AGREED!
Don't worry about it. You gave me the Atari. That's payment enough.
Ugh. Okay, Fine. Here you are.
Don't forget to recommend me to your friends!
I'll give your number to my friend Carli. She's always looking for babysitters.
Really?
Yeah, you'll have more work than you'd know what to do with!
That'd be excellent!!

For Hasbro's sake! It took Forever to get here!
Shuddup.
Guys! What you doing here?
Grimlock! We came here to rescue you From Timmy!
Oh, Timmy am okay.
That's what I said.
Besides, Mistress Sabrina here to take me back.
Wait, did you just say the Mistress is here!?
Uh-huh. Oh, you guys remember me Grimlock's good Friend Grimlock?
Hey.
Hey.
Hey.
Who?
Me Grimlock learn valuable lesson. Maybe not be so self-centered in-
Are you sure you don't want to keep the new toy, Timmy?
It's her! HIDE!!
Yuh-huh.
Okay. Well I'll just take him back home with me then.
Thanks anyway.
You're a very polite child.
Bye Dad! Tell Mom sorry I missed her!
We gotta stow away in her car, QUICK!!
AAAAAAHH!!!

Home again. Now I can finally get back to Unicron here.
Oh yeah! I'd almost completely forgotten about that thing.
SOON...
Almost there now - just need to snap the arms into place.
SNAP!
POP!
CLACK!
CLACK!
WRENCH!!
Then I attach the head to the shoulders,
His head wasn't on?
No wonder he couldn't do much. I'd be pretty messed up too if my head was separated from my body.
There! What do you think?
Not bad. A lotta stuff hanging off, but it's very impressive.
Help me put it up on the shelf.
You sure you wanna keep it up here, and not where it's easier to... play with?
Not really. This thing was a beast to deal with!
Besides, it was so expensive, I wouldn't want to risk breaking it.
Looks damn nice though!

Wow, Mistress Sabrina is really going to town rearranging the shelves!
Yup.
So Grimlock, I guess with the newer toy here, it looks like you've lost your spot on the shelf!
It seem that way.
That's too bad. I heard if you lose your space and go in that plastic tote, you wind up in a storage locker in the basement!
Have you ever seen it?
Not really.
No worries. After speaking with other Grimlock, me Grimlock no longer will Fear unknown.
Hmm.
Since IS unknown, who can say? Maybe storage area am actually wonderful place!
Me Grimlock will be very happy there.
JUNK
MORE JUNK
TOYS
huh.
This does kinda suck.

Hmmmm...
Do you think I'm immature?
-or we're immature?
What d'ya mean?
I mean look around! We're surrounded by toys, including one that cost hundreds, and everything else is video games and computers, anime and cartoon stuff.
I see what you're talking about now.
But look at it this way - You have a steady career and a family. Everyone's needs are met, and we can still afford things we enjoy.
That sounds mature enough to me.
Anything beyond that is just conceptual, some old stiff's expectations of what is 'grown up' and what isn't.
You're pretty good at cutting through the clutter sometimes. Thanks honey.
No problem, babe.
Let's not tell my folks how much that thing cost, however.
If you don't mention how much I've spent on in-game character skins, then we have a deal.
...
How much?
Never mind.

Grimlock!
What you guys here for?
We're here to rescue you! ... again.
Y'know, if you want.
DISK
Me Grimlock appreciate the sentiment, but will be okay. Didn't like being here at First, but Me Grimlock can get used to it.
Besides, since Mistress Sabrina not around here very much, Me Grimlock can shape storage area as Me Grimlock see Fit.
Can rule space like KING!
t GRIMLOCK.
What you say!?
t GRIMLOCK.
Look bub, Me Grimlock in charge of this place now, so creepy mister Michael Bay-bot better get used to it!
...
t GRIMLOCK!
SHEESH! Fine! Okay guys, we can go.
Not because Me Grimlock intimidated or anything. Just want to be with Friends.
Of course.

You on your Amiga again?
Yeah. I just had a couple things I wanted to finish up tonight.
Why? You got something to say?
No. I know you're just doing what you enjoy doing. If you're not pushing it on me, I won't give you grief over it...
...anymore.
Well, I appreciate that, and you'll be happy to know I am working to reduce the amount of room my systems take up.
Oh really?
I'm thinking of getting one of those Raspberry Pi micro systems, so I can emulate any game console I want,
-and this Vampire FPGA system is a fast hardware-level Amiga clone that can take the place of my current machine.
And since both connect via HDMI cables, they can share a monitor.
Well, I must give you credit honey. You really are doing your part to conserve space for hardware,
Thank you.
-but are you seriously going to go to all that effort and expense just so you can avoid using Windows?
No, of course n-
maybe.

Is that the VTuber software on your computer?
Yeah, I installed it so I could learn more, and be ready in case I'm needed for any future consultation work.
Y'know, today made me miss my work - the better aspects of it at least.
I'm thinking I might take on the occasional tech consulting gig in the future.
Really?
Yeah, well, now I have the luxury to pick and choose the jobs I take, I can stick with work that I find interesting or challenging,
-or to help out my wife, if she should ask.
I can relate to that, and I'm sure I can probably find something for you to do at the studio from time to time,
-if you find it interesting, I mean.
Gee, thanks.
If you do well enough, maybe I can even learn to tolerate this-
AAHH!!
OW! Why is it so HOT!?
Sorry, should've warned you - I have overclocked my CPU and GPU a bit.
Gotta squeeze a few more FPS out of my FPS!

It's been a long day. I'm heading for the bedding.
You coming?
I'll be there in a bit - just cleaning up a few things first.
Aren't you going to shut down your PC?
Nah. it'll go into sleep mode in a few minutes.
The CPU usually cools down some after that.
...
G'night, honey.
I said I'll be there in a little bit!
G'night.

Look at him, just... LOOMING over the entire room!
You're the one who said he's no danger. You worried now?
OF... of... of... of course not!
It's just that I-
FOR A TIME... I CONSIDERED SPARING YOUR WRETCHED LITTLE COMMUNITY OF SHELVING UNITS.
BUT NOW... YOU SHALL BEAR WITNESS... TO THEIR DISMEMBERMENT!
GASP!!
...
...
Nah, I'm just playin' with ya.
WHEW!!
Nice to meet you guys.
Nice to meet you too. You had us going there for a minute!
Damn, you're big!
So, you wanna hop down and hang out?
I would, but I got this display stand I can't lift myself off of. It is WAYYY up the exhaust!
Ouch.

Where is she taking us? Are we going into storage?
Shh! Be quiet and you'll find out!
Hey you guys! Long time no see!
Downshift!
Is this...
Are we in the mistress's bedroom?
That's right!
Welcome to the land of the Favorites,
where the toys that Mistress Sabrina and her husband have some special attachment to live!
Happy to see you all. I wondered what happened to some of you folks.
We've been here, and now you three are part of the club as well!
So tell me, is it true the mistress and her husband do bonding rituals, like they're trying to combine together?
Trust me, you'll find out soon enough.
Oh, MAN! It is WILD!

So, Me Grimlock got kicked out of cushy shelf spot by newer Grimlock toy. Mistress try to give away, but no one want Me Grimlock!
Wow, that is messed up!
Got put in basement storage, but Me Grimlock come back to hang out up here.
They let you back in?
Me Grimlock have to stay out of sight so Me Grimlock not be caught where Me Grimlock not supposed to be.
So what going on with you Slag?
Not much - certainly nothin' like you've been going through. The Mistress appointed me the guardian of her child, so I watch over her most of the time.
I hear the kid's being moved into her own room, so I'm not sure if they'll still need me after that, or-
Uh-oh! Sounds like someone's coming.
Me Grimlock gotta go. You Slag watch butt!
See ya dude! Good luck!
Man, I'm not sure what I'd do if I were to get straight-up replaced like that!
'sup.

Hello everyone! Welcome to my First live stream!
Allow me to introduce myself.
My name is Felicia Nebula, and I'm the First new virtual streamer For Double-Z Studios!
I'm new to this kind of thing, so please bear with me. I guess I can take some questions from the chat.
No, I'm not one of the regular studio performers.
Why? Do you think I sound like someone you know?
Will I be doing naughty stuff here? Well of course! This is an adults-only stream, after all!
I mean - I can't strip naked. This virtual body doesn't support that... yet.
-But if these streams are successful enough, I'll upgrade and be able to do more and more!
So I hope you enjoy, and let's have lots of fun together!
Oh! Thanks for the donation!
How did you take in more in one weekend than some of our live, NAKED online streamers do in a month?
I was hoping you could tell me!

A LATER TIME:
What'cha looking at?
Nothing!
...much.
Is that another one of those crowd-fund pre-orders like your Unicron?
Same basic idea, yes.
You planning to order it?
I'm... thinking about it.
Problem?
No, not necessarily.
I'd just like to know if I should get ready to rearrange the apartment again.
I'd like to be ready if we need to turn our lives upside-down over another gigantic toy.
This is in no way like the last one.
Really? How so?
Well, you see...
Unlike - um...
This one isn't even two hundred bucks, okay?
